Sub-Section Four
Charitable Trusts*30. *Definition

A "Charitable Trust" is an organization by virtue of which specific property is constituted solely for a charitable purpose to be administered by persons, the trustees, in accordance with the instructions given by the instrument constituting the charitable trust.

31. Formation

1. A Charitable Trust may be constituted by a donation or by a will or by order of the Agency;
2. A donation or will under Sub-article (1) of this Article shall be subject to civil law provisions.
3. An implied provision in the donation or will shall suffice for the constitution of the Charitable Trust.

32. Perpetuity of a Charitable Trust

1. A Charitable Trust may be constituted for a definite period. However, those assets obtained from income generating activities, public collections or any other sources shall not be used for purposes other than those for which the trust is instituted.
2. Where a Charitable Trust is constituted for an indefinite period, it shall be perpetual and irrevocable.
3. The charitable trust shall keep separate books of account for assets obtained from income generating activities, public collections or any other sources.

33. Application for Registration by Trustees

1. The person constituting the Charitable Trust shall appoint the trustees and such trustees shall apply, in the manner provided in Article 69, to the Agency for a certificate of license and registration.
2. The trustees shall apply for the registration of the Charitable Trust within 3 months of constitution of the Charitable Trust.
3. The trustees may not perform any acts involving third parties before acquiring a certificate of registration except those acts necessary for transferring the funds mentioned in the donation or will to the possession or ownership of the Charitable Trust.

34. Number of Trustees

1. The number of trustees shall not in any case be lower than 3 and more than 5. Where less than 3 persons are named, the Agency shall facilitate the appointment of the number of people required to fulfil this requirement;
2. Where more than 5 persons are named as trustees, the 5 first named and who are able and willing to act shall alone be the trustees, and the other persons named shall not be trustees unless appointed on the occurrence of a vacancy;
3. Notwithstanding sub-article (1) of this article, the Agency may allow less than 3 persons as trustees where one or more of such trustee is a Charity.
4. At least one of the trustees appointed under this Article shall be an Ethiopian domiciliary.

35. Appointment of Trustees

1. The trustees may be appointed by the person constituting the Trust, or by the person designated by him/her. In default of such person the Agency shall facilitate the appointment of such person;
2. Where the trustee so appointed refuses his/her agency or is for any other reason unable to perform the trusteeship, a new trustee shall be appointed according the rules of the trust.

36. Appointment of a Charity as a Trustee

1. A person constituting a Charitable Trust may appoint a Charity as a trustee in which case the officers of the Charity will administer the trust;
2. Charity provided in Sub-article (1) shall administer the trust by the terms of the will, donation or order of the Agency and distinguish it from other donations or income that it utilizes to achieve its purposes.

37. Structure of a Charitable Trust

1. Where the person constituting the Charitable Trust does not designate a trustee manager, a trustee treasurer and a trustee auditor or does not appoint a person to do the same, the trustees shall among themselves make such designation;
2. The Agency shall make such designation where the trustees fail to make such designation or are unable to give decision;
3. Where there are more than three trustees those who have not been designated under Sub-article (1) or (2) shall have all the rights and obligations of the other trustees except those rights and obligations inhering in the designated responsibilities;
4. The trustees shall among themselves choose the person who shall serve as the chairperson in the meetings of the trustees.

38. Administration of a Charitable Trust

1. The trustee manager shall perform all acts of management without the approval of the other trustees except where at least one of the trustees submits a written protest concerning any administrative act;
2. Decisions beyond acts of management and those decisions protested to under Sub- article (1) shall be taken by majority where at least three of the trustees are present.
3. Where opposing notions are supported by an equal number of trustees, the final determination shall lie with the chairperson of the meeting.
4. Those who are against a decision taken under Sub-article (2) and (3) may require that their dissenting opinion be recorded in the minutes.

5. The trustees shall be individually liable for the ultra vires acts they take as officers of the trust.

39. Powers of Trustees

1. The powers of the trustees on the Charitable Trust are those of an owner.
2. Without prejudice to any provision to the contrary in the act of constitution of the Charitable Trust, the trustees may not alienate immovable property without prior notification to the Agency.
3. Subject to the provisions on small charities the trustees may not alienate the property of a Charitable Trust by a gratuitous title.

40. Representation of a Charitable Trust

1. The trustee manager shall represent the Charitable Trust. The trustee manager shall nominate the trustee who shall act in his/her stead and may also appoint an advocate to represent the Charitable Trust in any proceedings.
2. The Charitable Trust shall be liable for juridical acts done by the trustees within their powers.

41. Directions of the Constitutive Instrument

1. The trustee shall conform to the express instructions which he/she has received from the instrument constituting the charitable Trust;
2. Irrespective of the provision of Sub-article (1) of this article where the interest of the beneficiary of the Charitable Trust so requires, the trustee may obtain an authorization from the Agency to depart from such instructions.

42. Remuneration of Trustees

1. A trustee shall not be entitled to remuneration unless a provision about her/his entitlement to remuneration has been made, by the trust instrument or by any law;
2. Notwithstanding Sub-article (1) of this Article, a trustee who acts in a professional capacity shall be entitled to receive reasonable remuneration out of the trust funds for any services that he/she provides to or on behalf of the trust if all the trustees have agreed in writing and approved by the Agency that he/she may be remunerated for the services;
3. Notwithstanding sub article (1) of this article a trustee is entitled to indemnity for all personal expenses and obligations arising out of the administration of the Charitable Trust.

43. Liability of Trustees

The trustees shall be liable for the good management of the Charitable Trust, in accordance with the provisions relating to agency, to the beneficiaries of the Charitable Trust and where applicable to the persons who are to receive the property at the termination of the Charitable Trust.

44. Resignation of a Trustee

1. A trustee shall be liable for any consequent loss to the Charitable Trust where he/she does not notify the other trustees and the Agency of his/her intention to resign two months prior to his/her resignation;
2. A trustee shall remain liable for the administration of the charitable trust until he/she hands over the trusteeship;
3. Where a trustee applies for resignation, a new trustee shall be appointed by the person constituting the trust, by the person on whom such power has been conferred, or in default of any such person, by the Agency 1 month prior to the expiry of the notice prescribed in Sub-article (1).

45. Attaching Charitable Trusts

1. The creditors of beneficiaries may in no case attach a Charitable Trust or any allowance to which a beneficiary is entitled.
2. The creditors of persons who are to receive the property forming the object of the Charitable Trust constituted for a definite period may at the dissolution of the Charitable Trust attach such property, or may replace the debtor at the time of termination.
3. Notwithstanding sub article (2) of this Article, the creditors shall not have rights on those assets obtained from income generating activities, public collections or any other sources under sub article (1) of Article 32(1) of this proclamation.

46. Rights of Beneficiaries

1. The beneficiaries may claim from the Charitable Trust the making over of the interest, which, according to the act of constitution of the Charitable Trust, is to accrue in their favour;
2. Where their rights are jeopardized, they may apply to the Agency to dismiss the trustee or to compel him/her to give appropriate guarantees;
3. The beneficiaries of the Charitable Trust have no right to dispose of or to administer the property forming the object of the Charitable Trust;
4. Notwithstanding the provision of Sub- article (3), they may only do those acts which preserve their rights, such as the interruption of a prescription in relation to such property;

5. The beneficiaries may make publications with a view to informing third parties of the fact that certain properties form the object of the Charitable Trust.
